COUNTY NEWS

News of each Community Gathered each week by Our Rustling Associate Editors

Waldport.

Mr. Hodges of Benton County has been visiting in Waldport.

Mr. Sherlock has been surveying a town plat on the beach this side of Ocean View.

Mr. Merrill and Mr. Richardson of the Telephone Company spent several days in Waldport last week.

Another dance at Kent's Hall was enjoyed Saturday evening.

Owing to the largely increased business being transacted at the local post office the department has advanced the price of lock boxes.

A school meeting held the 8th decided to purchase a separate site for the local high school.

Mrs. J. B. Olmstead visited us last week to look after several houses which she owns here.

John Ludemann and Chas. Boell made a business trip to Newport last week.

O. V. Hurt of Newport has brought in several property buyers recently and has sold several ranches.

Assessor Ball was with us last week. With very few exceptions the people in this end of the County are well pleased with their assessment.

We have had all kinds of weather in the past week but gardens seem to be growing right along.

Rock Creek.

While Geffie, the three-year old daughter of Guy Chamberlain, was watching her papa split wood, a scale of steel from the wedge struck her in the eye. They feared she would lose her sight, but at last reports she was getting better.

George Wigle has the measles, and there will undoubtedly be more cases soon.

M. L. Thompson, the Fall City druggist, was transacting business here last week.

Charlie Hardisty has taken a homestead back of Granite mountain and is building a house.

R. H. Plank and G. H. Horsefall attended the road meeting at Siletz last Saturday.

Jim Wright is clearing the logs from a part of his new ranch up Little Rock Creek.

The snowstorm in progress at this time is boosting for Florida and Texas.

Kernville.

Roy Braden sold a horse to L. D. Wood for $150. Mr. Hammond, father-in-law of Mr. Braden, started the next day to buy another. They think they can make more money buying and selling horses than at anything else.

On April 1st Mr. Hemstreet came to the bay and towed a scow, on which was loaded a new house, 14 miles up the river to L. D. Wood's home.

Walter Bones is in from the Valley. He is looking for a piece of land to buy. He says he is coming back here to live. He has been sick half of the winter, and says Lincoln county is the place he is hankering for. We all remember that Walter sold a fine farm here last Spring to go to Canada. He went but did not like it, then tried living in Dallas, but he is homesick and will be until he gets back here.

Mr. Kobuski is selling his house hold belongings preparatory to moving near the Agency, where he has bought a farm.

George Wood is setting telephone poles; others are getting busy, and soon we can talk to our friends 12 miles up Siletz and out to the Valley.

The sisters of George Parmele bought some chickens of Mrs. Fielding.

The Reed Creek schoolhouse is completed and looks fine. It was built by G. S. Parmele and helpers.

The launch Idlewild towed the scow of G. S. Parmele & Sons down the Siletz river so it could be loaded with lumber for the schoolhouse in the upper end of the district.

Mr. Brown of Heppner has bought the lower place of Mrs. Payne. The Browns have five children—just the people we want to see.

Born, April 2, 1911, to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Parmele, a nine pound boy.

Jesse Bosler is working at the sawmill.

The Gerald C. came in April 7th with a full cargo. We can see smiles on all faces now.

Jesse Stone has a new separator room.

Miss Birdie Ollise returned home Sunday.

Siletz.

Thursday evening the 6th inst, the ladies gave a surprise party in honor of Mrs. K. C. Egbert's birthday. A very enjoyable evening was spent.

The Dramatic Club gave another very enjoyable entertainment on the 1st of this month. Mrs. Walter Hall, Mrs. C. S. Davis, Misses Raddant and McDonald, Messrs. Walter Hall, Dr. Clausius, L. J. Frachtenberg, Arthur Bensell, Wm. Towne and Chas. Blacketer being principals in a delightful comedy. The Club will give a minstrel show early in May.

Supt. K. C. Egbert returned on the 11th inst from a trip to Grande Ronde and Portland.

Last Saturday, the 8th inst, a meeting was held at which it was decided to purchase a portable rock crusher, engine and complete outfit for road district No. 15. That's going some and looks like the right move.

As soon as the roads shape up we expect to get our machinery for the cheese factory.

Wm. Towne's friends surprised him on the evening of the 11th inst, it being his birthday. The crowd came early and stayed late. His friends presented him with a handsome safety razor as a memento of the occasion.

Eddyville.

The Eddyville Grange received their new organ Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hyde of Toledo are visiting relatives on Little Elk.

R. W. Veit is laid up with the stiff neck caused by the la grippe.

S. T. Loudon was kicked on the knee by a horse Saturday, from which he is quite lame.

E. H. Vader went to Corvallis Saturday, returning Tuesday.

The storm has stopped goat shearing, with about half the shearing done. It is feared there will be a heavy loss as the goats have not had time to "toughen" since being sheared.

John P. Stringer, our genial postmaster, is trying to be as pleasant as usual these days, although doing his own cooking while Mrs. Stringer is visiting the sick in Corvallis.

We were somewhat surprised to hear of the great change in the demeanor of Mr. Stitt, and sincerely hope that he will not become a backslider, but will lead a useful, honorable life.

Otis.

L. D. Hardin and D. S. Burton have returned from Grand Ronde, where they have been putting in grain.

Miss Leola West has returned from Moro where she has been visiting some months.

J. A. West started his cheese factory last week. L. O. Hardin expects to start his as soon as the roads are in a little better condition.

Cecil Cosper, of Portland visited in our community last week. Mr. Cosper thinks we have one of the finest nooks in Oregon, and so we have.

I. L. Nixon went to Sheridan a few days ago.

The Elmore estate are having two boats built, we are told, for the Coast trade. The Oshkosh No. 2 and another. They will carry freight to and from Siletz Bay as well as other points along the coast.

C. A. Fooze expects to return to the valley soon.

Most every one is busy making garden these days and we hope all are preparing to raise the best ever in that line.

Dell Winters and Lee Affolter made a trip from Slab Creek to Devils Lake last week taking some horses to pasture.

We are having a nice rain at the present writing, something we were glad to see. Since the middle of February we have had no rain to speak of, and a good rain will be a benefit to the growing crops.

Geo. King of Winant was a Toledo visitor yesterday.

Rosebrook's orchestra will give a dance at Woodmen Hall Saturday evening.

Miss Lola Wade returned last Saturday evening from a two weeks' visit at Portland.

A. C. Crawford and wife of Siletz returned last Wednesday evening from a visit in the Valley.

If you wish to economize always consult the shoe repairer about your old shoes before you cast them off.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bradford moved to Portland yesterday. Jack has accepted a position in a sawmill at that place.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Horning have again opened up their hotel at Otter Rock, the nicest summer resort on the coast.

Don't use sisal twine to tie your Mohair, but write to H. S. Pruner, Nashville, Ore. for prices before you sell.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Ross will move to Dallas Monday where Dave will run an engine for Mr. Ebbe. They will be gone about six weeks.

Little Miss Virginia Altire entertained about thirty-five of her little friends at a party at her home near town last Saturday afternoon, it being her tenth birthday.
